HIRSCHLER FLEISCHER ATTORNEYS RECEIVE SPECIAL RECOGNITION

On May 20, Carrie Hallberg O'Malley was honored as one of Virginia Lawyer Media's 2010 Influential Women of Virginia. The awards recognize the outstanding efforts of women in numerous fields, including law, business, health care, education and the arts. The honors were given to individuals who are making notable contributions to their professions, their communities and society at large. In September 2009, Carrie had been recognized by the Girl Scout Commonwealth Council of Virginia, Inc. as one of its nine 2009 Women of Distinction. The award exemplifies achievements women have made in their professional and volunteer lives, while exemplifying the Girl Scout principles of courage, confidence and character. Carrie concentrates her practice on real estate acquisitions, sales, financings and securitizations, as well as commercial leasing matters, and telecommunications issues as they pertain to commercial real estate transactions. She holds B.S., M.B.A. and J.D. degrees from the University of Richmond.

In February 2010, Laura Lee Garrett was recognized by CREW (Commercial Real Estate Women) as one of its Top 20 Women in Richmond Commercial Real Estate. Laura Lee has built a practice representing investors, developers, landlords, tenants and lenders in a wide range of complex commercial real estate transactions. She received her J.D. from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William & Mary.

In April 2010, Jennifer M. Becker was recognized by LINC as recipient of the 2010 Krista Latshaw Pro Bono Award. LINC is a nonprofit, community-based organization dedicated to helping people with the business side of cancer. Jennifer is an associate in the Business section of Hirschler Fleischer, where she works on a broad range of general business and corporate matters. She received her J.D. from the T.C. Williams School of Law at the University of Richmond
